

Annotation to the working program of the discipline

Organization of ground handling of aircraft at airports

Program index (code)		PB-1-2-272/18-3.2.4
Total	hours	150
	ECTS credits	5,0
Course		3
Semester		5
Distribution of hours
(specify necessary):
	hours	34
Lectures	hours	34
Laboratory classes	hours	–
Practical classes (seminars)	hours	82
Independent work of student	number/	–
Coursework	volume of hours	–
Course project	number/	–
Control works	volume of hours	1/8
Homeworks	number/	–
Settlement and graphic work		differential call / 5
Final Test Form / semester		the formation of future aviation
Purpose of the discipline		specialists of systematized knowledge about the organization of ground handling at airports, the requirements of international and domestic aviation regulatory documents, modern technologies and facilities for ground handling.
The task of studying discipline		mastering the knowledge of ground handling at the airport; mastering of knowledge in the organization of administration and control, servicing passengers, luggage, air cargo and mail, technology of work on the platform and preparation for flight of aircraft.
Module name and number:	number	1
Module №1	hours	150
Organization of ground handling of aircraft at airports.		lectures, laboratory classes, independent work
Form of study	(full-time, external)	full-time
The program was developed by a scientific and pedagogical worker		Associate Professor of the Department of Technologies of Airports V.I. Lichik
Full version of the work program		http://aki.nau.edu.ua/